Residency Instructions

Wisconsin Statutes, Section 36.27(2), governs resident status for tuition purposes. If you do not qualify under one of the exceptions in the statute, you will be assessed nonresident tuition. In determining resident status for tuition purposes, standards are different from those used for voting, paying taxes, etc. In general, you must be a bona fide resident of Wisconsin for at least 12 months prior to enrollment for any semester or session in order to be eligible for in-state tuition. However, if you come to Wisconsin primarily for educational purposes, you do not automatically qualify as a Wisconsin resident even after living in Wisconsin for a year or more.

The most common provisions of the statute under which you may qualify as a resident, or be able to pay at the resident rate, are:

1. Your parent(s) is a bona fide resident of Wisconsin for the year prior to your enrollment, and you graduated from a Wisconsin high school or were home-schooled or obtained a GED in Wisconsin.
2. You, your spouse, or someone who claims you as a tax dependent has moved to Wisconsin for full-time employment for a job relocation, or for new employment that was accepted before moving and before applying to this university, and which will continue full time with the same employer.
3. One of your parents is a bona fide resident of Wisconsin, and you are a tax dependent of one of your parents.
4. You are or were a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, or are the spouse or child of such a member. There are a number of exceptions for such individuals; please refer to the statute at the Web site listed below.

For the full text of the applicable statute, visit the Registrar's Office Web site at www.registrar.wisc.edu. You may contact a Tuition Residency Counselor at 608/262-1355 or e-mail res4tuition@em.wisc.edu.

Minnesota Residents: Minnesotans may be eligible to participate in the Minnesota–Wisconsin Tuition Reciprocity Agreement. You must apply for certification through the Minnesota Office of Higher Education. Information and application materials are available online at www.getreadyforcollege.org. Please note the application is not available until April 1. If you are approved for the program, you will be classified as a nonresident but assessed the approved reciprocity tuition rate.

Equal Opportunity

The university is committed to equal opportunity for all persons regardless of race, color, sex, creed, age, ancestry, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, political affiliation, marital status, or arrest or conviction record in its educational programs, activities, and employment policies. This statement is published in accordance with Section 86.9 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, implementing Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972, with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (as amended), and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Inquiries concerning compliance with the requirements of Title IX referring to equal opportunity regardless of sex and inquiries regarding nondiscrimination on the basis of ethnic or racial heritage may be directed to the Equity and Diversity Resource Center, 179A Bascom Hall, 500 Lincoln Drive, Madison, WI 53706-1314; 608/263-2378. Inquiries pertaining to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability should be addressed to the Disability Consultant, Equity and Diversity Resource Center, at the address and numbers above.

Use and Disclosure of Social Security Number

Federal law (20 U.S.C., Section 12-32g.) allows UW–Madison to request and use the Social Security number (SSN) for routine record keeping and institutional statistics. It may be used in connection with necessary billing and collection efforts that may include disclosure to federal, state, or local agencies; to private parties such as relatives, present and former employers, business and personal associates; to guarantee agencies; to educational and financial institutions; to credit bureaus and collection agencies and to agency contractors in order to verify your identity, determine program eligibility and benefits, permit servicing or collecting of a debt, enforce the conditions or terms of a debt, counsel you in repayment efforts, investigate possible fraud and verify compliance with any relevant program regulations, and locate you in the event you become delinquent in repayment of a debt.

If you intend to apply for financial aid, the SSN is required. As applied to financial aid, it may be used for a number of purposes, including verification of identity of the borrower or recipient and as an account number throughout the life of a loan; determination of program eligibility; certification of enrollment and student status; determination of eligibility for deferment, cancellation, or repayment by third parties; determination of eligibility for disability or death claims; and, in case of delinquent or defaulted loans, for tracing the borrower and collecting.

Use and Disclosure of Racial/Ethnic Information

The U.S. Department of Education requires the university to report the number of students in various racial/ethnic categories. Your cooperation in furnishing accurate information will be appreciated.

Racial/ethnic heritage information will be treated as confidential and will not appear on academic records, grade reports, class lists, or transcripts. Individual student racial/ethnic information will not be supplied to persons outside UW–Madison unless the student gives prior written consent. Within the UW System, individual student racial/ethnic information will be released only by approval of the chancellor or a designee of the chancellor.
